Campbell, Dugald McLeod

Dugald McLeod Campbell was born 16 August 1890 at Traralgon, Victoria. His parents were Dugald Campbell and Mary Allen Gillies. He was the last of four children; Agnes Isabella born 1881; Mary Nicolina born 1884; Archibald brown born 1886 and Dugald McLeod born 1890. He was a pupil at Traralgon State School 1328, Campbell Street starting in 1896.

Dugald enlisted 5 October 1916 and was given the Regimental number 1096. He was appointed to the Australian Army Veterinary Section, April Reinforcements. The following information is taken from his enlistment papers:

Age - 26 years
Address – "Greenwood" Traralgon, Victoria
Next of kin - his Mother; Mrs. Margaret A Cameron of the same address.
Occupation – Farmer
Description; Height – 6 foot 2 ½ inches (189.23 centimeters); Complexion – Fresh; Eyes – Hazel; Hair – Black
Religion – Presbyterian

He embarked from Melbourne, Victoria, on board HMAT A29 Suevic on 21 June 1917 and proceeded overseas to England disembarking at Liverpool 26 August 1917. He was admitted to hospital 28 August 1917 suffering from Mumps. Dugald was discharged from hospital 19 September 1917 to a training battalion. He proceeded to France 17 February 1918 and was Taken on Strength of the Australian Veterinary Hospital at Calais 19 February 1918.

1st Veterinary Hospital (New South Wales)

On the 5 July 1918 Dugald was admitted to hospital and on the 20th July he was transferred to England suffering from Neuritis Epilipsy. He embarked 9 November 1918 at Devonport, England for Return to Australia. Dugald was discharged from the army Medically Unfit 21 January 1919 with the rank of Private.

Dugald was awarded the British War Medal and Victory Medal

Dugald died 26 October 1924 at Traralgon, Victoria and is buried at the Gippsland Memorial Park, Traralgon.

OP-D022

HMAT A29 Suevic, 1919

British War Medal & Victory Medal